CROAKERS—IMPROVEMENTS.—The prayer which is put up every day all over the Christian world, of "deliver us from our enemies," may be said to be particularly appropriate for Alexandria. If Alexandria ever had enemies she certainly never had any as hurtful as those who can be with great propriety denominated "croakers." In the main, croakers are in no business, have not a dollar's worth of property in the city, and yet with solemn countenances, the pretended wisdom of a Solomon, and the importance of an Astor, they predict the speedy downfall of every scheme which has in view the prosperity and advancement of the town. They seem to have been indulging in a "Rip Van Winkle" sleep, and appear to forget that this is an age of progress. What Alexandria needs now, is energy and the free and liberal changing of money. In no way can this end be better attained than by the erection of buildings—employment is given to the mechanic; the builder finds a good investment for his money, and foreign merchants are induced to come here on account of the cheapness of rents and living. To try and stop this, is stabbing our town in its vital part. Not an improvement is suggested that some do not try to throw cold water upon it. Such are always the loudest in wishing Alexandria to prosper, to become a great commercial mart, but as soon as there seems to be a desire to advance, to wake up and be doing, they too often turn a cold shoulder. These remarks have been induced by what has recently been said, perhaps, thoughtlessly, in regard to the new "Corn Exchange," and the "Hall" on King street, &c. It is hoped, however, that remarks such as are sometimes heard will not deter enterprise, but that all our citizens who can, will invest their money in the city, and by so doing set an example which foreign capitalists may not be slow to follow.

THE LIBRARY.—Since Saturday last, the following persons have either subscribed or renewed their subscriptions to the Alexandria Library, and it is hoped that the list will continue to swell:

R. A. Adam	J. T. Creighton.
R. L. Carne	G. E. French
Dr. W. B. Gregory	J. W. Green
D. K. Hawhurst	E. H. Janney
Wm. H. Lambert	W. H. Marbury
J. E. McGraw	G. M. Ramsay
J. Rector Smoot	H. C. Slaymaker
B. F. Seava	P. G. Uhler
G. K. Vimer	Wm. Wood

The following books have been recently added to the collection and additions are constantly being made, thus presenting literary attractions rarely to be met with. The Professor, Shirley, Villetto, Wildfell Hall, Wuthering Heights, and Agnes Gray, by Brontë; Prehistoric Man, Dr. D. Wilson; Stepping Heavenward, Prentiss; Saint Cecilia, a modern Tale of Real Life; The Holcombe, a Tale of Virginia Home Life, Valeria Aylmer; Sandford and Morton, Thos. Day.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A short time since Mr. Oliver Brown, of Fairfax county, while on his way home, stopped for a moment at the grocery store of Mr. David Pulman, at the extreme western end of Franklin street, just outside the Corporation limits. While in the store some young men who were lounging about the door commenced irritating his horse, and when he remonstrated with them they attacked and beat him severely. This morning two of the offenders, Patrick Doran and John Patton, were arrested by officers Jackson and Nicholson, and turned over, by Justice Alexander, to the authorities of Fairfax county.

OLD DOMINION LIGHT HORSE.—A meeting of the Old Dominion Light Horse was held at Falls Church yesterday evening, at which, however, no business was transacted. Several additions were made to the membership of the company and the meeting adjourned to re-assemble at Catts' Tavern, West End, next Friday evening. It was determined to hold the meeting succeeding that of Friday next at Bailey's Cross Roads. The Company's roll now contains sixty-seven names.

CITY COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the City Council has been called for to-night, for the purpose, it is understood, of designating a registration and voting place in the Fourth Ward; the house heretofore used for that purpose being now occupied.

Since the above was put in type the call for a meeting of the Council to-night has been revoked.

THE MARKET.—This morning, was well supplied and well attended. Early vegetables are coming in freely—with a tendency to a decline. No change in the prices of fresh meats. Butter 40a50 cts. per lb. Eggs 20 cts. per dozen. A good supply of fresh fish of different kinds. Mr. Slater had a more than usually beautiful display of flowers.

SUPREME COURT.—Yesterday in the U. S. Supreme Court, John S. Knox, Jr., et al., plaintiffs in error, vs. The Exchange Bank of Virginia. The motion to dismiss this cause was submitted on printed arguments by Mr. H. O. Claughton, in support of the same, and by Mr. George W. Brent and Mr. C. W. Wattles, in opposition thereto.

COAL SHIPMENTS.—The American Coal Company shipped from their agency in this city during the week ending to-day 6,322 tons of coal. The Hampshire and Baltimore Company during the same period shipped 1990 tons.

LYNCHBURG AND DANVILLE RAILROAD.

The whole line of the Lynchburg and Danville Railroad, sixty-six miles in length, has been let to contractors, and it is confidently expected by the officers of the road, that within the next fifteen, or eighteen months at most, the work will be completed and trains running directly through from this city to Danville. Messrs. Adams, Hamblin & Co. have taken the contract for the first 26 miles; Messrs. Braxton, Mason & Co. for the next 20 miles, and Messrs. John Lyons & Co. for the remaining 20 miles. The President and superintendent of the road merit and receive the praise to which their ability, skill and energy in the prosecution of this important line of internal improvement justly entitle them.

BOOT ON THE WRONG FOOT.—A party of young men of the 3rd Ward, not having that fear of and respect for the law which should possess all good citizens, being angered with a former companion, went to his house on Oronoco street, between Columbus and Alfred, a night or two ago with the avowed purpose of cobbing him. The intended victim, however, being made aware of their sinister designs, armed himself with a revolver and on their arrival threatened to blaze away into the midst of them should they make any hostile demonstration. Though the fear of the law was not before their eyes the fear of gun powder and lead was, and so they beat a precipitate retreat, and did not stand upon the order in which they marched.

AN INJUNCTION.—An injunction of some moment to the Washington and Richmond Railroad company was obtained against them this week by Col. M. D. Ball, attorney for Capt. Jacob D. Faunce. The company were interfering with the fishing operations of the complainant, by running their road through the buildings erected on the landing on Quantico creek, which he had leased from Mrs. Sarah Otterback, for five years. Judge Keith has granted an injunction which forbids all interference with the buildings or the fishing operations, and will compel the company to change their route at that point, should the order be perpetuated.

"LOCALS."—The Norfolk Day Book being applied to by a subscriber for "more locals," is reminded by the call of an incident which occurred in the Richmond Theatre during the war. The orchestra was much annoyed by a man in the pit, who kept calling out to the musicians, "louder—louder." At length the bald-headed "leader of the band" got mad at the interruption, and jumping upon a bench flourished his trumpet high in the air and delivered himself vehemently as follows:—"Ze should-man may cry louder, LOUDER, LOUDER, as much as he please, but zee he got to wind, by-gar!"

ALEXANDRIANS IN THE RICHMOND JAIL.—From a gentleman, just from Richmond, it is understood that Messrs. Reddy, Rochford and Moran, the three Alexandrians, confined by order of Judge Underwood, in the jail in that city for declining to answer certain questions in the Cameron Distillery case, are very well, and are treated with the utmost kindness in their prison quarters by the jailor and all his subordinates. They will be examined again on the 2nd of May, when, it is to be hoped, they will be released and allowed to return to their homes.

IMPROVEMENT.—The spirit of improvement seems to be more prevalent this Spring than it has been for many previous seasons. The owners of many of the buildings on King street and in other quarters of the city have been persuaded by it, as is agreeably evidenced by the appearance of their premises. The store of Mr. Blondheim, corner of King and Fairfax, is one among the noticeable improvements alluded to, and Mr. B. has now two really handsome show windows, and has them filled with beautiful goods.

REGISTRATION.—A meeting of the registrars of the city was held at the Mayor's office, this morning for the purpose of making arrangements by which uniformity of action can be secured during the registration which, as already announced, will commence on Tuesday next. The places of registration will be the same as those of last year, with the exception of that in the Fourth Ward, and a place for that ward will be designated by the City Council to-night, provided there is a quorum present.

THE WHITE STONE.—The white stone, to raise which one inch from the ground will entitle the lifter to five dollars, as stated in the Gazette a day or two ago, still continues to be an object of attraction, and the neighborhood of the intersection of Columbus and Oronoco streets, where the stone is laid, is visited nightly by crowds of both white and colored people, many of whom make futile attempts to win the prize.

FOURTH WARD RADICALS.—The waters of politics are again troubled, and the Fourth Ward Radicals have been called together at the colored Odd Fellows Hall on Monday night next. It is understood that for the valuable assistance rendered by the party in this city to their friends in Washington on Thursday last, a consideration has been promised both in money and men at the May election to be held here.

GEORGETOWN & ALEXANDRIA RAILROAD. The contracts for the construction of this road, connecting the Baltimore road with the Orange and Alexandria road, by way of the Georgetown viaduct, were signed on Monday by the Orange and Alexandria road, the Baltimore and Ohio road, and Governor Cooke. The construction will be completed within twelve months. This will afford the Baltimore and Ohio road a new depot, within a few squares of the Arlington Hotel.—Balt. Gazette.

NAVIGATION RESUMED.—Navigation on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal was interrupted for nine hours on Thursday last by the letting off the water at Berlin so that the boat sunk there on the previous Monday could be raised. At the expiration of that time however the obstruction had been removed and boats were again passing.

THE HEAVENS.—The new moon and the planets Venus, Jupiter and Mars were all beautifully displayed soon after sunset, last evening, the three former in the west and the latter in the south. A repetition of the sight may be witnessed for several evenings yet to come.
